

Local People Named on Advisory Group for County Housing Projects

Citizens prominent in social welfare, educational and philanthropic activities have accepted invitations to serve on a special advisory committee on selection of tenants for Los Angeles county low-rent housing projects, the County Housing Authority announced today.

The committee will consult with members of the tenant selection staff of the housing authority on problems connected with qualification of applicants for homes in the Carmelitos, Harbor Hills and Maravilla projects.

Five residents of this district have accepted invitations to serve on the committee. They are: Michael Strasser, city editor of The Torrance Herald; Miss Birda Paddock, city editor of The Lomita News; Jack L. Abbott, principal of Narbonne high school; E. M. Mosher, Lomita, and Mrs. Charles H. Cheney, Palos Verdes Estates.

First meeting of the county-wide committee will be held within two weeks, according to Eva Neal, supervisor of tenant selection for the housing authority. Present plans contemplate holding the meeting in a demonstration home shortly to be opened at the Carmelitos housing project, 5150 Atlantic boulevard, North Long Beach. The home is now being furnished attractively and inexpensively with the aid of the National Youth Administration and other organizations.

WPA Workers To Register for Defense Training

Registration of all WPA workers who possess qualifications necessary for employment in national defense activities or aptitudes for training in defense work is now being undertaken throughout the nation, Herbert C. Legg, WPA Administrator for Southern California, announced yesterday.

"Work records of more than 2,500,000 persons on our awaiting assignment to WPA rolls are being combed for skills and potential skills which can be turned to productive defense channels," Legg said. "Approximately 35,000 workers on WPA rolls in Southern California are being classified and registered in a Defense Industries Employment Register, which will show either the skills at which they are proficient or for which they can be trained. Workers already qualified are available for immediate employment, while those requiring additional training are subject to enrollment in special vocational training courses now being offered cooperatively by WPA, the Office of Education and Defense Advisory Commission."

The employment register will show the number of WPA employees in each state qualified or potentially qualified for 130 industrial occupations designated as important to the defense program, based on their WPA record and their previous employment record. WPA recently allocated $468,000 for training of 5,000 workers in Southern California in defense subjects, and classes have been started in several counties.

Two years ago on Aug. 17 a large "horoscope" party was held at the Paradise Hut, many guests being present and extra help being employed. A year later Mrs. Mawer brought suit against Mrs. Schaffer alleging that at that dance she had fallen and suffered a compound fracture of the bones above the ankle.

According to the plaintiff she was given no help but left, went to her home in Redondo Beach and called a doctor who set the leg the following day.

According to the records of the Hut no one was reported injured nor was any guest or employee aware of an accident. Witnesses for Mrs. Schaffer were guests who were present at the party and employees on duty that night. Mrs. Schaffer states that the plaintiff, who was at the time of the accident, Katherine Lenihan and married later, was not known to her.

No evidence was introduced to prove that the injury was suffered at Paradise Hut and the judge ruled that if the plaintiff had slipped and fallen on a slippery dance floor no damages were due as it was at the risk of the individual that a person danced, there being no evidence that the floor was broken or unsafe for ordinary dancing.

Bandit Snatches $18 from Harbor City Store Till, Walks Clerk

An armed bandit last Thursday night took $18 from the cash register at a liquor store at 1725 Highway 101 in Harbor City and forced M. C. Hagen to accompany him a block and a half from the place, Hagen told Los Angeles officers.

At the point of departure, Hagen said the bandit ordered him to turn around and retrace his steps to the store. Hagen said the gunman was about 25 years old, wore a sport shirt and dark trousers and was bare-headed.

Personal Injury Suit Dismissed

The $7,000 damage suit brought by Mrs. Katherine Mawer against Mrs. Dolores Schaffer of Paradise Hut was heard before Judge Baird in superior court Tuesday with judgment awarded to Mrs. Schaffer, the plaintiff receiving no damages.

Townsend Club Activities By Vernon F. Glidden

Members and friends of the Torrance Townsend club enjoyed a delicious potluck dinner at the Men's Bible Club building last Friday evening. We initiated the new kitchen equipment in the hall and appreciate it all very much. The business session was a busy one with remarks and reception of new members and sale of Townsend soap. Much merriment was created.

Highlight of the evening was the unexpected appearance of Judge Herbert L. Sweet of Los Angeles who appeared in behalf of the initiative petition for an amendment to the California state old age pension act, which would simplify the matter of making application for the pension and also clarify many of the somewhat obscure provisions of the law as it now exists.

A good musical program and light refreshments are promised by the committee for Friday evening, Aug. 23.

It was decided to have a picnic in Torrance Park August 22, meeting at the park at noon. Delegates to the convention are Mrs. Hattie Schroeder and Mrs. Grace Greene, alternates Mrs. Ruth Hathaway and Mrs. Anna Dannenhauer.

Six Assembly Aspirants Speak at Torrance Meet

Six of the 10 Democratic candidates for the 68th Assembly district legislative post appeared at Torrance high school auditorium last Friday night in response to the Ephebian society's invitation to speak on a public forum program. Approximately 250 attended the meeting.

The candidates who didn't participate came in for a share of attention as their non-appearance was commented on by those candidates present and by Nick Zorotovich, harbor Ephebian chapter president, who presided. He pointed out that all assembly candidates had been invited to the forum and regretted that four had missed the engagement.

Candidates who spoke on why they believed themselves qualified for the assembly post and outlined some of the things they proposed to do if sent to Sacramento were Edgar S. Frenger and James J. O'Toole of Torrance, Richard D. Pomeroy of Harbor City, John G. Boro, Cornelius J. McGovern and Vincent Thomas of San Pedro.

Livestock Valuation in County Reported

Valuation of dairy cattle in Los Angeles county is placed at $1,999,450 in the annual report of County Assessor John R. Quinn to the state board of equalization, it was learned today. Field deputies found a total of 72,836 head in the course of their rounds this spring.

Horses, most of them of riding breeds, are valued at $850,990, or slightly more than $100 apiece for the 8107 head. The assessor also reported 24,757 head of sheep, valued at $48,555.

Swine totaling 26,404 were found on hog ranches and in a few back yards, with a total valuation of $78,895. In other back yards the assessor found 1598 goats which were valued at $6485.

Poultry and turkeys still are reported by the dozen, instead of by the head. Los Angeles county, which supplies more than a million eggs a day to the egg-eating and cake-making population, had 85,700 dozen chickens valued at $138,866, and 707 dozen turkeys valued at $2,563 when the field deputies made their rounds, the report showed. The poultry and turkey figures are those for ranches only, and do not include the back-yard flocks of individual property owners, it was explained by Assistant Assessor John Hartman.

FOR AMERICANISM and DEMOCRACY

"Advocates of any form of totalitarian philosophy . . . Nazism, Fascism, or Communism . . . are the immediate and most menacing threat to our national security . . ."

"Many masquerade as Liberals, Democrats, or Progressives . . . and SOME GET THEMSELVES ELECTED TO OFFICE. The deception eventually is disclosed, not by their 'patriotic' utterances, but by their ACTIONS AND STRANGE AFFILIATIONS."

—CLARA N. COLDEN

REAL Security Important

THE SECURITY of the Nation demands that there be in Congress men and women who are actuated SINCERELY, and with deep CONVICTION, by the highest motives of patriotism.

Congressmen who oppose every effort to ferret out subversive influences, to run down "Fifth Columnists," to prepare the nation so it may remain at peace by being READY TO REPEL ATTACK, are not truly patriotic.

A VOTE for CLARA N. COLDEN IS A VOTE for Security

THE COLDEN PLATFORM IS PATRIOTIC

SIX FORMS of "security" to which every deserving citizen is entitled, and toward the attainment of which she pledges herself to work if elected to Congress, are listed by Mrs. Colden. They are: National defense security, job and unemployment security, business security, and home and old age security.

Of defense security, Mrs. Colden says: "In a world in which force is the final arbiter, security against force is the price of liberty. If we do not immediately take such steps as are necessary to preserve that security, the moment it is threatened by totalitarian action, we shall have war thrust upon us later, with its attendant loss of untold numbers of American lives and dissipation of billions of American dollars. I hate war, but full preparedness for war is our only assurance of peace."

As to jobs and unemployment she contends it should be the endeavor of Congress to stimulate constructive governmental efforts to "find out about jobs in America and to make them more secure."

Full educational facilities for the children of every home would contribute to home security, she says, and an equal concern for persons in the twilight of life would lead to a more adequate system than now exists for aiding the elderly.

LABOR BUSINESS OLD AGE

"The right to bargain collectively through organizations of labor's own choosing is so fundamental that there never should be any question of that right."

"Without successful business, there cannot be successful workers. There is a duty of government sympathetically and practically to aid business as a whole."

"I long have deplored the inadequacy of our pension systems for the elderly. They should not suffer privations in the midst of potential plenty."
